

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                               |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Editor's Note                                                                                                                 | vii |
| 1. India's Use of Hard and Soft Power as Foreign Policy:A Realist and Constructivist AnalysisJasvir Singh Mann | 1   |
| 2. Leveraging India's Logistic Support Agreements inthe Maritime DomainAnuttama Banerji                        | 17  |
| 3. As India Swims in the MAHASAGARRadhey Tambi                                                                     | 31  |
| 4. Reassessing the Indo—Sri Lanka Accord at Thirty-Nineand the Persistence of the Tamil QuestionSaima Azim     | 41  |
| 5. Ensuring Fuel Security for India's NuclearEnergy ExpansionBhawna Budhwar                                    | 59  |
| 6. A Reality Check on Make in India in DefenceSatya Narayan Misra and Kartik Kishore                               | 77  |

7. The US National Defence Strategy 2026: Retrenchment for Renewal or Spheres of Influence? 89
Sanjeet Kashyap

Book Review

- Taming the Dragon: A Manifesto for a New Modus Vivendi with China 105
Bhavna Singh