

Centre for Aerospace Power and Strategic Studies

PUBLICATIONS GAUIDELINES FOR APJ, Blue Yonder, D&D, Occasional Papers, Thematic/Knowledge Series

Use of Endnotes.

Following will be followed i.r.o use of Endnotes: -

- All articles in our Journals (APJ, D&D, BY, ADR) will have ® have End-notes.
- Monographs, books, book chapters, will continue to have endnotes.
- Occasional Papers will have ® have End-notes.
- Thematic / Knowledge Series articles will have (R) have End-notes.

Occasional Papers

The standout features of Occasional papers will be as follows:-

- The papers will be of 8000-12000 words.
- The topic in the paper has to be on a contemporary topic related to India's defence, security, happenings in the world affecting domains of Aerospace, Nuclear and India's Neighbourhood (Immediate and Extended).
- The editor of the contents of the paper will be the concerned vertical Supervisor, with DG being the Chief Editor.
- Every Occasional Paper will undergo mandatory Plag, AI check & copy editing. The procedure for these checks will be same as that followed for other publications. Supervisor could follow-up the checks lest there is a delay.
- Every Occasional Paper will be an e- but since the writing an Occasional paper entails heavy academic work they will have Endnotes in the form of Endnotes as prescribed in CAPSS's Guidelines on Citations.

Thematic/ Knowledge series

The stand out aspects of Thematic/ Knowledge Series are as follows: -

- There will be a main theme/ topic which could be under Aerospace, Nuclear or India's Neighbourhood.
- There will sub-theme/ topics under the main theme. Articles will be written on the sub-themes/ topics.

- All articles will undergo Plag, AI check and copy editing
- Each article is to be of 2500 - 3000 words.
- The Knowledge series articles must have Endnotes as specified in CAPSS's guidelines.